The Effects of HABITUAL MISERY, exemplified in the Life of a diſabled SOLDIER.

NO obſervation is more common, and at the ſame time more true, than That one half of the world are ignorant how the other half lives. The misfortunes of the great are held up to engage our attention; are enlarged upon in tones of declamation; and the world is called upon to gaze at the noble ſufferers: The great, under the preſſure of calamity, are conſcious of ſeveral others ſympathiſing with their diſtreſs; and have, at once, the comfort of admiration and pity.

There is nothing magnanimous in bearing misfortunes with fortitude when the whole world is looking on: Men in ſuch circumſtances will act bravely even from motives of vanity; but he who, in the vale of obſcurity, can brave adverſity; who, without friends to encourage, acquaintances to pity, or even without hope to alleviate his misfortunes, can behave with tranquility and indifference, is truly great: Whether peaſant or courtier, he deſerves admiration, and ſhould be held up for our imitation and reſpect.

While the ſlighteſt inconveniencies of the great are magnified into calamities; while tragedy mouths out their ſufferings in all the ſtrains of eloquence, the miſeries of the poor are intirely diſregarded; and yet ſome of the lower rank of people undergo more real hardſhips in one day, than thoſe of a more exalted ſtation ſuffer in their whole lives. It is inconceivable what difficulties the meaneſt of our common ſailors and ſoldiers endure, without murmuring or regret; without paſſionately declaiming againſt Providence, or calling their fellows to be gazers on their intrepidity. Every day is to them a day of miſery, and yet they entertain their hard fate without repining.

With what indignation do I hear an Ovid, a Cicero, or a Rabutin, complain of their misfortunes and hardſhips, whoſe greateſt calamity was that of being unable to viſit a certain ſpot of earth, to which they had fooliſhly attached an idea of happineſs. Their diſtreſſes were pleaſures, compared to what many of the adventuring poor every day endure without murmuring. They eat, drank, and ſlept; they had ſlaves to attend them, and were ſure of ſubſiſtance for life; while many of their fellow-creatures are obliged to wander, without a friend to comfort or aſſiſt them, and even without a ſhelter from the ſeverity of the ſeaſon.

I have been led into theſe reflections from accidentally meeting, ſome days ago, a poor fellow, whom I knew from a boy, dreſſed in a ſailor's jacket, and begging at one of the outlets of the town, with a wooden leg. I knew him to be honeſt and induſtrious when in the country, and was curious to learn what had reduced him to his preſent ſituation. Wherefore, after giving him what I thought proper, I deſired to know the hiſtory of his life and misfortunes, and the manner in which he was reduced to his preſent diſtreſs. The diſabled ſoldier, for ſuch he was, though dreſſed in a ſailor's habit, ſcratching his head, and leaning on his crutch, put himſelf into an attitude to comply with my requeſt, and gave me his hiſtory as follows.

'As for my misfortunes, maſter, I can't pretend to have gone through any more than other folks; for, except the loſs of my limb, and my being obliged to beg, I don't know any reaſon, thank Heaven, that I have to complain; there is Bill Tibbs, of our regiment, he has loſt both his legs, and an eye to boot; but, thank Heaven, it is not ſo bad with me yet.

'I was born in Shropſhire, my father was a labourer, and died when I was five years old; ſo I was put upon the pariſh. As he had been a wandering ſort of a man, the pariſhoners were not able to tell to what pariſh I belonged, or where I was born, ſo they ſent me to another pariſh, and that pariſh ſent me to a third. I thought in my heart, they kept ſending me about ſo long, that they would not let me be born in any pariſh at all; but, at laſt, however, they fixed me. I had ſome diſpoſition to be a ſcholar, and was reſolved, at leaſt, to know my letters; but the maſter of the workhouſe put me to buſineſs as ſoon as I was able to handle a mallet; and here I lived an eaſy kind of life for five years. I only wrought ten hours in the day, and had my meat and drink provided for my labour. It is true, I was not ſuffered to ſtir out of the houſe, for fear, as they ſaid, I ſhould run away: But what of that, I had the liberty of the whole houſe, and the yard before the door, and that was enough for me. I was then bound out to a farmer, where I was up both early and late; but I eat and drank well, and liked my buſineſs well enough till he died, when I was obliged to provide for myſelf; ſo I was reſolved to go and ſeek my fortune.

'In this manner I went from town to town, worked when I could get employment, and ſtarved when I could get none: When happening one day to go through a field belonging to a Juſtice of peace, I ſpied a hare croſſing the path juſt before me; and I believe the devil put it in my head to fling my ſtick at it:——Well, what will you have on't? I killed the hare, and was bringing it away in triumph, when the Juſtice himſelf met me: He called me a poacher and a villain; and collaring me, deſired I would give an account of myſelf: I fell upon my knees, begged his Worſhip's pardon, and began to give a full account of all that I knew of my breed, ſeed, and generation; but, though I gave a very good account, the Juſtice would not believe a ſyllable I had to ſay; ſo I was indicted at ſeſſions, found guilty of being poor, and ſent up to London to Newgate, in order to be tranſported as a vagabond.

'People may ſay this and that of being in jail; but, for my part, I found Newgate as agreeable a place as ever I was in all my life. I had my belly-full to eat and drink, and did not work at all. This kind of life was too good to laſt for ever; ſo I was taken out of priſon, after five months, put on board a ſhip, and ſent off, with two hundred more, to the plantations. We had but an indifferent paſſage, for, being all confined in the hold, more than a hundred of our people died for want of ſweet air; and thoſe that remained were ſickly enough, God knows. When we came aſhore we were ſold to the planters, and I was bound for ſeven years more. As I was no ſcholar, for I did not know my letters, I was obliged to work among the Negroes; and I ſerved out my time as in duty bound to do.

'When my time was expired, I worked my paſſage home, and glad I was to ſee Old England again, becauſe I loved my country. I was afraid, however, that I ſhould be indicted for a vagabond once more, ſo I did not much care to go down in the country, but kept about the town, and did little jobs when I could get them.

'I was very happy in this manner for ſome time, till one evening, coming home from work, two men knocked me down and preſſed, and then deſired me to ſtand. They belonged to a preſs-gang; I was carried before the juſtice, and, and as I could give no account of myſelf, I had my choice left whether to go on board a man of war, or liſt for a ſoldier. I choſe the latter; and, in this poſt of a Gentleman, I ſerved two campaigns in Flanders, was at the battles of Val and Fontenoy, and received but one wound, through the breaſt here; but the doctor of our regiment ſoon made me well again.

'When the peace came on I was diſcharged; and as I could not work becauſe my wound was ſometimes troubleſome, I liſted for a landman in the Eaſt-India company's ſervice. I here fought the French in ſix pitched battles; and I verely believe, that, if I could read or write, our Captain would have made me a Corporal. But it was not my good fortune to have any promotion, for I ſoon fell ſick, and ſo got leave to return home again with 40l. in my pocket. This was at the beginning of the late war, and I hoped to be ſet on ſhore, and to have the pleaſure of ſpending my money; but the Government wanted men, and ſo I was preſſed for a ſailor before ever I could ſet foot on ſhore.

'The boatſwain found me, as he ſaid, an obſtinate fellow; he ſwore he knew that I underſtood my buſineſs well, but that I ſhammed Abraham, merely to be idle; but God knows, I knew nothing of ſea-buſineſs, and he beat me, without conſidering what he was about. I had ſtill, however, my forty pounds, and that was ſome comfort to me under every beating; and the money I might have had to this day, but that our ſhip was taken by the French, and ſo I loſt all.

'Our crew was carried into Breſt, and many of them died, becauſe they were not uſed to live in a goal; but, for my part, it was nothing to me, for I was ſeaſoned. One night, as I was ſleeping on the bed of boards, with a warm blanket about me (for I always loved to lie well) I was awakened by the boatſwain, who had a dark lanthorn in his hand: 'Jack,' ſays he to me, 'Will your knock out the French centries brains?' I don't care, ſays I, ſtriving to keep myſelf awake, if I lend a hand. 'Then follow me,' ſays he, 'and I hope we ſhall do buſineſs.' So up I got, and tied my blanket, which was all the cloaths I had, about my middle, and went with him to fight the Frenchmen. I hate the French becauſe they are all ſlaves, and wear wooden ſhoes.

'Though we had no arms, one Engliſh man is able to beat five French at any time; ſo we went down to the door, were both the centeries were poſted, and, ruſhing up on them, ſeized their arms in a moment, and knocked them down. From thence, nine of us ran together to the quay, and ſeized the firſt boat we met, got out of the harbour, and put to ſea. We had not been here three days, before we were taken up by the Dorſet privateer, who were glad of ſo many good hands; and we conſented to run our chance. However we had not as much luck as we expected. In three days we fell in with the Pompodour privateer, of forty guns while we had but twenty-three; ſo to it we went, yard-arm and yard-arm. The fight laſted for three hours, and I verily believe we ſhould have taken the Frenchman, had we but ſome more men left behind; but, unfortunately, we loſt all our men, juſt as we were going to get the victory.

'I was once more in the power of the French, and I believe it would have gone hard with me, had I been brought back to Breſt; but, by good fortune, we were re-taken by the Viper. I had almoſt forgot to tell you, that, in the engagement, I was wounded in two places; I loſt four fingers of the left hand, and my leg was ſhot off. If I had had the good fortune to have loſt my leg, and uſe of my hand, on board a King's ſhip, and not aboard a privateer, I ſhould have been intitled to cloathing and maintainance, during the reſt of my life; but that was not my chance: One man is born with a ſilver ſpoon in his mouth, and another with a wooden ladle. However, bleſſed be God, I enjoy good health, and will for ever love Liberty and Old England. Liberty, property, and Old England, for ever, huzza!'

Thus ſaying, he limped off, leaving me in admiration at his intrepidity and content; nor could I avoid acknowledging, that an habitual acquaintance with miſery ſerves better than philoſophy to teach us to deſpiſe it.

CHARLES-TOWN, MAY 19.

THE South-Carolina Society, in Conſideration of the long and faithful Services of SAMUEL PRIOLEAU, their Clerk, have augmented his Salary to Fifty Pounds Sterling per Annum, and preſented him with a handſome Piece of Plate, of upwards of Two Hundred Pounds Currency Value, on which the Society's Arms are engraved, and the following Words, viz.

"The GIFT of the
SOUTH-CAROLINA SOCIETY,
To Mr. SAMUEL PRIOLEAU,
As a Teſtimony of their Senſe of his beneficial and faithful Services, as their Clerk, during 26 Years, 1767."

We hear that there will be a very full Commons Houſe of Aſſembly this Day, having been required to attend, to diſpatch and bring the Buſineſs of the Seſſion to a Concluſion.

Laſt Thurſday upwards of 130 Iriſh Proteſtants arrived here from Belfaſt, in order to ſettle in this Province.

Capt. HODGSON, who arrived here the 15th inſt. from Gibraltar, informs, That about five Days before he ſailed, Advice was receiv'd of the Arrival of the Spaniſh Galleons at Cadiz; on the Receipt of which, the Oelus Frigate, and another Ship, were diſpatched to the ſaid Port, to demand, (as was ſaid) the Manilla Ranſom; the Spaniards pleading as an Excuſe, for the Delay of Payment, the want of Money, till the return of the above Fleet.——Surely all this Smoke cannot be without ſome Fire.——The ſaid Captain further informs, That an Engliſh Ship, loaded with Tobacco, which had been up the Levant, was ordered to unload her Cargo at Gibraltar; but Governor Irwin, in order to keep at Bay with the Dons, would not permit her, and gave immediate Orders for her quiting the Port, which was obeyed; and being obſerved by the Spaniſh General, he ſent out two Xebecks to take her; but a TRUE-BORN SON OF FREEDOM, who commanded one of his Majeſty's Ships, ſaved them from Slavery, by granting that Proteſtion to his Countrymen, which Love,—Honour,—and Duty bound him to.——May Britannia's Sons never ſuffer the Gallick Power to oppreſs her Children, and eſcape with Impunity.

In a Letter from Carthagena, via Jamaica, Capt. Henderſon, of the Sloop Fanny, bound from thence to the Bay, gives a diſmal Account of the Loſs of the ſaid Sloop, on the 31ſt of October laſt, off Cape Gracious a Dois; with many other Circumſtances that befel the Crew, (Eleven in Number) who all except three, died through Fatigue and the Want of Subſiſtence; thoſe who ſurvived being obliged to eat the Fleſh of their poor deceaſed Ship-mates for Food, and drink their own Urine to quench their Thirſt; and to make their Caſe ſtill more diſmal, the brutiſh Spaniards refuſed them Subſiſtance, as Men ſaved from Ship-wreck; alledging, That they were not bound to the Bay, and therefore muſt take up their Abode in the common Goal, amongſt Thieves, Negroes and Murderers!

By a Clauſe in our laſt Revival-Act, paſſed the 12th of April, 1767, "The Duty on every Barrel of Pork, Beef, Timber, Plank, Boards, Staves, Shingles, or other Lumber, Deer Skins, Pitch, Tar and Turpentine, and Indico, imported into this Province, declared to be repealed for two Years, provided the Importers of ſuch Commodities do enter into Bond to the Treaſurer, either to export the ſame or pay the Duties laid thereon by the General Duty-Act, within ſix Months after ſuch Importation."

Or a view of that famous city, after a work of ſeven years, done at GERMANTOWN, near PHILADELPHIA;

IS now to be ſeen at Mr. Holiday's in Charleſtown, from nine to twelve in the forenoon, and from three in the afternoon till nine at night; each grown perſon to pay 2os. and children 7s. 6d.

It repreſents Jeruſalem, the Temple of Solomon, his Royal Throne, the noted Houſes, Towers and Hills, likewiſe the ſufferings of our Saviour, from the Garden of Gethſamane to the Croſs on the Hill of Golgotha;——the whole being an artful piece of STATUARY, in which every thing is exhibited in the moſt natural manner, and worthy to be ſeen by the curious.

N. B. This inimitable piece is ſeventeen feet long, and nine feet wide.—The proprietor's ſtay in Charleſtown, will be about two weeks.——It is not viewed through a glaſs as moſt perſons imagine.

ABSENTED himſelf from his Maſter's ſervice, on Wedneſday evening, the 13th inſtant, an apprentice lad named Lawrence Flinn, born at Kingſale in Ireland, aged about 17 years, near five feet high, of a darkiſh complexion, but his cheeks are very red when clean, ſandy hair, and a ſmall white ſpot of hair about the bigneſs of an Engliſh ſhilling on the crown of his head.——Had on when he went away, a red waiſtcoat, ſhort trowſers, check ſhirt, a ſmall narrow brimm'd hat, which he painted with different colours; he alſo took with him a bundle, containing a thick grey jacket, two frocks, and a pair of trowſers. A reward of FIVE POUNDS will be paid to any perſon who will deliver him to me in Charles-Town; and whoever harbours the ſaid Apprentice, may expect to be proſecuted with the utmoſt ſeverity of the law.——All maſters of veſſels are cautioned againſt carrying him off the province, as they will anſwer it at their peril. THOMAS SHEARMAN.

RUN-AWAY from the ſubſcriber, about a fortnight ago, two Negro fellows, viz. PETER and SAM; Peter is a young fellow, about five feet ten inches high, well made, and has attended the market for ſome time paſt as a butcher.——Sam is a mulatto fellow, about twenty years of age, with buſhy hair and full face; had on when he went away, a green coat lined with livery-lace; they are both very ſenſible fellows, and well known in town and country. A reward of Twenty-five Pounds will be paid for taking Peter; and Five Pounds for Sam, upon delivering either of them at my plantation at Stono, or to the Warden of the Work-houſe. All perſons whomſoever, and particularly all maſters and commanders of veſſels, are cautioned and forewarned, not to harbour, entertain, employ, or carry off the province, either of the ſaid Negro fellows, as they will be proſecuted with the utmoſt rigour of the law.

Now we John Gordon, of Charles-Town, in the Province of South-Carolina, Merchant, and Jeſſe Fiſh, of the Town of St. Auguſtine, in Eaſt-Florida, do hereby give this publick Notice to all Perſons ſettling, and intending to ſettle in Florida, that we, for ourſelves and others, all Subjects of his Britannick Majeſty, in the months of October and November, immediately after the ratifying the ſaid Treaty of Peace, confiding and relying on his Majeſty's Royal Stipulation therein, and we as above mentioned, did purchaſe from ſeveral of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain, then reſiding in Florida, for a valuable Conſideration, and had in due, lawful and proper form, and by proper deeds and conveyances in Law, conveyed to us, various and extenſive Tracts of Land in the ſaid Country, and in that Diviſion thereof now called Eaſt-Florida, of which Lands the ſaid Spaniſh Subjects before and at the Time of ratifying of the ſaid Treaty, were lawfully ſeiſed and poſſeſſed according to the Laws of Spain, as of their own private Property, and the Conveyances made to us as aforeſaid, were on the firſt Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three, proved before the then Britiſh Commander in Chief of Eaſt-Florida, certified under his Hand and Seal, and duly authenticated, and a Notification and Inſtrument declaring us the ſaid John Gordon, and Jeſſe Fiſh, to be the real and lawful Purchaſers and Owners of the ſaid Lands, under the Hand of the Spaniſh Governor and Royal Officers of Florida, at St. Auguſtine, and the Seal of their Contaduria, were iſſued, and the ſaid Inſtruments and Conveyances, with Plans of the ſeveral Tracts of Land thereunto annexed, were produced to his Excellency Governor Grant, on or before the ſeventeenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four, and tendered at the Publick Regiſter's Office, in St. Auguſtine, there to be recorded, that no Perſon might plead Ignorence, or be miſled, in their Application for, or ſettling on Lands in Eaſt-Florida.——NEVERTHELESS, William Greening, Eſq; Publick Regiſter did refuſe to receive or record in his ſaid Office the ſaid Conveyances, by Order (as he ſaid) of the ſaid Governor, who has declared, that he would, on application to him in Council, grant away theſe Lands in the ſame manner as if no Purchaſe of the ſame had ever been made. WE DO THEREFORE, in this publick Manner, claim our Right to the ſaid Lands, and enter our Caveat and Proteſt againſt the Governor of Eaſt-Florida, his Granting any Part or Parcel of the ſame: AND we do hereby in like Manner caution and forewarn all Perſons whomſoever, from ſetting down, ſettling on or clearing any of the ſaid Lands, on any pretence whatſoever, without our Leave and Conſent, as ſuch Perſon or Perſons may depend on our aſſerting our Right, founded upon the Faith of the ſaid Treaty, and on our purſuing to the utmoſt Extent of the Law, any Treſpaſſers on the ſaid Lands; at the ſame Time, WE DO DECLARE, for ourſelves, and other Proprietors, that we will give due Encouragement to all Perſons that ſhall apply to us to ſettle the ſaid Lands, by Virtue of, and under our Right and Title, on the moſt reaſonable Terms.
